6. James Bert BLUNT (Hugh R.-2, Nelson-1) was born on March 11, 1851 in Columbia Co., AR.⁷ He was a carpenter and a farmer. He appeared in the census on January 5, 1920 in Grady Co., OK, enumerated with daughter, Nova Arizona Blunt Carson.. He died on April 19, 1928 in Rush Springs, Grady Co., OK.¹²

Obituary from undated, unnamed newspaper (probably a Rush Springs, OK newspaper):

James B. Blunt was born in Columbia County Arkansas, March 11, 1851. He became a member of the Missionary Baptist Church and lived a devoted Christian life until his death which came April 19, 1928.

He was married to Georgia Ann Slack August 25, 1872 but this union was broken one year later by her death. He was again married January 20, 1876 to Alpha Anna Delafield. Born to this union were eight children, four girls and four boys, of whom only one has passed away, Joel Edgar who was buried in 1909. This wife died April 11 1893 and was put to rest in the Cromwell Cemetery at Cromwell, Texas.

James B. was well known in and around Rush Springs as he had made this his home since 1901. He had a score of friends and all who knew him loved him for what he was, a good citizen and a worthy gentleman always. He is mourned by his many friends and relatives but God knew best and took him home where he will suffer and sorrow no more. Everything that loving hands could do was done but God wanted that he should be in Heaven with him and sent his angels for him. Weep not dear kinsmen for he left with the hopes to meet you in a better world above.

He leaves seven children:

Millie Irene Barksdale, James B. Blunt, Jr., Nova Carson, Albert Blunt of Rush Springs, Rosie Lulu Caudill of Cal., Pierce Blunt of Arizona, Anna Buford of Arkansas.

A sister Amanda Braley, of La. A brother Nelson of Arkansas, several grandchildren, and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at 2:30 o'clock, April 20, 1928 after which his body was placed in its final resting place, in the Rush Springs cemetery, to await the Judgement Day.

The Lord preserves the going out.
The Lord preserves the coming in.
His Angels guard the round about
To keep thy soul from every sin,
And when the going out is done
And when the coming in is o'er
When in the dear and followed place,
Thy feet can come and go no more,
The Lord preserves they going out
From this fair world, from friends and kin,
While angels stand (the rest is unreadable)

He was buried on April 20, 1928 in Rush Springs Cemetery, Grady Co., OK.

In a brief history of the King's Corner Assembly of God Church, O'Bier writes about the Rev. Charlie Carraway and his Sunday School held in the Blocker School at King's Corner. When the school burned in about 1920, Rev. Carraway held his meetings in a tent until a tabernacle could be built. In the meantime, a Rev. Elmer L. Tanner preached a revival in the community and many of the people in the area attended. At this time, everybody was attending church at Old Sarepta Baptist. One night the Baptist preacher told everyone that had been attending the revival at King's Corner to leave his church and not to come back. "Only Mandy Braley went back." [O'Bier]

Mrs. Amanda Braley

My dear Auntie I will try this afternoon to write a few lines in answer to your dear sweet letter of a few days ago. I was so glad to know you got home and the trip didn't make you sick for you was so hoarse I was uneasy about you. I came home that night from Alberts and I was in bed for too weeks with flu and grief together. Oh Aunt we have been so lonely since our papa went away and left us. I feel like some times I can't ever stand it. When mama left us we had him left but now they are both gone. I feel like I want to go too but of course I can't until the good lord calls for me but heaven seems so near by with them and Edgar are all there. Oh Auntie I am so glad you were here and glad Doss came to. I think I have got such a good able man for a cousin. I sure do love him and I hope I get to come see you all this summer but don't know just yet. Aunt Mandy I hope you are well and feeling good all the time and I trust all the rest is well. How is cousin Dora's boy is he all right? I was so sorry to hear of Boots losing her boy. Well the weather is pretty raw but we sure have lots of rain washed every boddys crops away and they had to plant over sure is hard on the farmers. We are still living in the School building but we won't be here when school starts this fall and Mr. Barksdale don't know if he will have the job anymore or not but we hope to anyway. I am still keeping the little baby and I keep another little fellow through the day only on Sundays his mother is working and I keep the baby for her she is only the child's step mother so I don't think she cares much about him. Well Jim's and Albert's folks are all well. Auntie tell Doss and Ada I will write to them sometime soon. Nova said you all got the things we sent you. I hope they were all in good condition when they got there. Well deare Auntie I will close for this time hoping you will answer real soon and a long letter for I am so lonely and am always so glad to heare from my dear old Auntie. I still remain your loving neice until death.

Millie

In an April 11, 1990 interview at her nursing home room in Springhill, La., May was found to be quite knowledgeable of her family history. Although extremely sharp of mind, she was nearly blind. I did not inquire about the families of her sisters or brothers. She told me that after her father, Joe Allen, passed away, her mother married Mr. Porter Green and that she had a (at least one) half-brother, Neal Green from that marriage. She also told me that Mittie Maynor, wife of Rayford Houston, was her mother's sister. May related that after her mother married Mr. Green her oldest sister and youngest brother went to Fred Dean's house (a Maynor aunt had married Mr. Dean) and the other boys went to Hortman where they had originally come from. May said that she had a pretty good home with Mr. Green and that he was one of the best men that she ever knew. She stayed at home for about 6 years or until she became a teenager. Her oldest brother, Joe, Jr., married Lilly and May lived with them for the first year of their marriage. She met "Wild Jesse" Braley and fell in love. Edward was aged 18 at the time of arrival indicating that he was born c1894.

In a letter to me dated Jul. 2, 2001, Marie Charrell Reiger confirmed that George was her grandfather, and that he was born Jun. 9, 1860, and died in 1958 or 1959 in Pomona, CA at age 98 or 99 years. Marie's father had an older sister named Ann who married Albert Ancell in England. They had two children, Jack and Ann, both born in England. They came to the United States after 1911, and lived in Pomona where they had another child, Kenneth.

Another check of Ellis Island records show that Albert, Annie, and children Annie and John Edward Ancell arrived in the United States at Ellis Island on Sep. 24, 1920 aboard the ship Celtic. Albert was aged 37, wife Annie ag 34, daughter Annie, age 9, and son John Edward aged 7.

There is a birth recorded for Kenneth, born Apr. 12, 1921 in Los Angeles. He died Jul. 21, 1989 in Bend, Deschutes Co., OR. According to his birth record, his mother's maiden name was Campbell. Alpha Adeline HENRY and Edward CHAPPELL had the following children:

Obituary, The Minden Press-Herald, Minden, La., September 7, 1976

Frank Hurley Coffee, 66, died Saturday at his residence following a brief illness.

Coffee was a retired Air Force veteran and a member of the Shreveport VFW and the Shreveport Elks Club.

He had lived in Avinger, Texas for the past 11 years.

Services were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Rose-Neath Chapel in Minden with Dr. Ronald Prince officiating. Burial was in the Minden Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Shannon Coffee of Avinger, Tex.; his mother, Mrs. A. L. Coffee of Minden; one son Jack Coffee of Baton Rouge; one daughter, Mary Elizabeth Coffee of Shreveport; two brothers, Harry Coffee and Dr. James Coffee of Baton Rouge; two sisters, Ruby Coffee of Shreveport and Mrs. Myra Lee Rea of Minden.

Pallbearers were John Fort, Crichton McCrary, Douglas McCrary, Linwood Inabnett, Turner Almond, Pat McCrary, Carlos Green, Carlton Frazier, and Cleve Rea.

He was buried in September 1976 in City Cemetery, Minden, Webster Parish, LA.³¹⁵ In addition to Helen and other wives listed in this genealogy, Frank was married at least five more times. I recall visiting him in Shreveport in about 1957 and found him working in National Shirt Shop, a men's clothing store. He was married to a lady named Jacqueline. At the time of his death he was married to a lady named Shannon. I do not believe there were any children from either of these marriages. Webster Parish records show that at one time Frank owned the Tri-State Novelty Company, a juke box vendor, in Minden.

A search of court house records in Cass County did not reveal any business license (Index to Assumed Names, 1971 forward) marriage record or other information about Frank with the exception of probate documents prepared upon his death.

Frank's death certificate was recorded in Jefferson, Marion County, because he was taken from his residence in Cass County to the nearest hospital which was in Jefferson. Jefferson and Avinger are only a few miles apart. Frank's death certificate recorded his social security number as 575-03-1416. G. E. Haggard and Son Funeral Home, Inc. in Marion County, handled the arrangements.

In a 1995 exchange of letters with Fred McKenzie, author of the book Avinger Texas USA (M&M Press, Rt. 1, Box 404, Avinger, Texas 75630), I was told that Frank was a barber and that he had a shop near the beauty shop of Shannon Burns Terry. I was unable to locate a business license for either person at the courthouse in Avinger.

Grady Coffee Is Attending Large Bombing School

Minden Boy Is In Second Class of U. S. Army's "Hell From Heaven Men"

Midland Army Flying School, Texas - Among the "Hell from Heaven Men" making up the second class at this world's greatest bombardier training school is Aviation Cadet Loy G. Coffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Coffee of Minden, Louisiana. At the completion of his course Cadet Coffee will become a commissioned officer in the United States army.

Formerly a student at Louisiana State university, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Cadet Coffee had previously received R. O. T. C. and national guard training, and while in civilian life he was actively interested in golf.

Training

At this huge new training school for America's bombardiers, young men learn the secrets and operation of our country's most devastating weapon of offense, the famed U. S. bombsight. The bombardier cadets divide their time between groundschool classrooms, spacious training hangars, and the swift-flying AT'LL's, specially designed bombardier training planes.

When they have the theory down pat, when they understand the why-and-wherefore of bombs and bombsights, the cadets crawl into the glass-enclosed nose compartments of their planes, spend day and night house sending 100-pound practice bombs streaking toward targets that surround this bombardier college in an eighty mile circle.

Their course completed, these "Hell from Heaven Men" are good; are in fact, the best. That's why they've been dubbed "the most dangerous men in the world."

Captain L. Grady Coffee Killed in Plane Crash

Body Will Be Returned With Military Escort For Funeral Service In Minden

Captain Loy Grady Coffee, 27, army air forces, was one of the ten servicemen killed when a plane exploded in mid-air and crashed at Walker Field, Hays, Kansas, Saturday, December 30. Only three of the crew were reported to have bailed out, and one is not expected to live.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coffee, Captain Coffee was born and reared in Minden. He was a graduate of Minden high school where he was a football star, and attended L. S. U.. He volunteered for service on December 8, 1941, just six months before receiving his law degree. His initial training was received at Maxwell Field, Alabama, and he was commissioned a second lieutenant after completing training at the bombardier school, Midland, Texas. After graduation he remained at the school to serve as an instructor. From there he went to San Angelo and on to Harlingen. He was commissioned a first lieutenant at Gowen Field, Boise, Idaho, which was his last station before reporting to Walker Field as bombardier instructor. Soon after his arrival there, he was assigned other duties and promoted to the rank of captain.

He married the former Miss Martha Easley of Harlingen, Texas, in March, 1943. She has been with him since their marriage and will arrive in Minden sometime today accompanying the remains, which are being shipped with military escort.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but services are expected to be held at the First Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, sometime following the arrival of Harry D. Coffee.

Besides his wife and parents, he is survived by four brothers, Frank H. Coffee, Minden; Dr. James Coffee, Baton Rouge; Harry D. Coffee, U. S. Coast Guard, now serving overseas; and Carl Coffee, Hope, Arkansas; and three sisters, Mrs. S. B. Samuel and Mrs. Gus Howell, both of Minden; and Miss Ruby Coffee, Shreveport.

The following is a summary of the accident report prepared by an Investigating Committee shortly after the accident:

Capt. Coffee was an Instructor Bombardier on a B-29 Flying Fortress. The B-29 took off at 9:15am and climbed to an altitude of 25,000 ft. At about 10:20am the No. 3 engine backfired and caught fire. An extinguisher was activated and the fire seemed to go out, but shortly flared up again, this time burning fiercely. Another extinguisher was activated but was not effective. The investigation determined that the fire had caused fuel lines to rupture and fuel was flowing uncontrolled into the engine.

The engine exploded causing the plane to lose its left wing and part of the fuselage. Part of the tail section was destroyed as the plane cartwheeled to earth. Crew members lost their oxygen equipment in the spin and were incapacitated to such an extent while bouncing around the inside of the plane that jumping was a "physical impossibility."

The pilot, 1st Lt Rufus C. Anderson, had previously alerted the crew to jump. Capt. Coffee, the navigator and the radio operator proceeded toward the door leading into the forward bombay. Capt. Coffee was being assisted into the leg straps of his parachute by the radio operator. The report of a survivor indicated that Capt. Coffee was later seen lying unconscious on the bombay doors, and that he had probably been knocked unconscious. He had a deep gash on the top rear of his head. He later fell free of the plane, and his body was found intact and unburned.

Loy Grady COFFEE and Martha EASELY were married in March 1943 in Harlingen, Cameron Co., TX. Martha EASELY was born in Harlingen, Cameron Co., TX.

BULLRIDES AND RODEOS -- Former LSU football player Al Coffee, now with EPSCO, INC., takes his sons Tyler, 14, and Matt, 12 in August, to rodeos.

"They love to ride bulls and belong to Little Britches Association, national rodeo for children. It's a real professional type organization," says Coffee. "The bulls meet certified qualifications, and the boys like to ride and rope."

Coffee's own father, Harry D. Coffee, is a sports enthusiast, and Coffee remembers his father taking him and his twin brother, Grady, football player, as well as brother Harry Coffee Jr., track runner, to many sports events.

Coffee's own sons prefer horses. They board two quarter horses. When they first got interested in horses, Coffee saw to it that they learned all about the hard work involved, cleaning stalls, and grooming the horses.

Sidney Coffee, deputy press secretary for Gov. Roemer, is the mother of the clan. They have a camp at Bayou Sorrell. Every weekend Coffee and sons go fishing.

NEW ROADS -If the owners' enthusiasm is an element in the success of a restaurant, Al and Sidney Coffee have a winner on their hands.

The husband-and-wife team become so excited when describing the classic Louisiana fare in their new dining establishment that their words tumble out and the modulation of their voices rises appreciably.

Though the Coffees say they entered the business by accident, each has a genuine love for food, and they've had two years experience preparing breakfasts and special candlelight dinners in their bed and breakfast operation in New Roads.

Not surprisingly, their recently opened restaurant is named The Coffee House and is located in a 19th century, two-story brick building on Main Street, only four blocks from the two old houses on Richey Street in which they have run their successful bed and breakfast business since 1991.

Opened in April, the "white table cloth" restaurant is a natural extension of the Coffees' bed and breakfast operation, but the pair is still somewhat incredulous as to the circumstances earlier this year which turned them into novice restaurateurs.

Al Coffee had admired the interesting old New Orleans-style building at 124 West Main St. since his arrival in New Roads and had considered several possible uses for the empty structure. The building was constructed circa 1880 and had housed, at various times, a bank, a saloon, a bakery, The Western Auto store and, most recently, a short-order eatery. The building's owners put a deadline on his decision, and, without consulting his wife, he signed a two-year lease in January.

"I had no idea we'd open a restaurant," he said.

But the Coffees had been introduced to the world of cooking after they became innkeepers two years ago and had enjoyed for some time preparing and presenting multi-course candlelight dinners in the big dining room of one of the houses they use in their bed and breakfast operation. Al Coffee had originally cooked the special occasion meals, but the sessions in the kitchen became too time-consuming, and Bill Boudreaux, a local chef, was brought in to cater the dinners.

With the newly leased, empty building waiting to be used and the availability of Boudreaux as chef, the opening of a cozy restaurant serving local Creole and Cajun specials became the obvious solution.

In four months, the large empty building with soaring ceilings was filled with an eclectic mixture of antique furniture; a kitchen was installed; a large, old-fashioned bar was built (by Al Coffee) across the rear of the main dining area, and the Coffees became proprietors of The Coffee House.

"This was the one thing I said I'd never do," Sidney Coffee said. "Everyone told us about the nightmares of running a restaurant."

She added, "But it was almost an extension of the B & B, and both Al and I love people. You have to like people to operate a restaurant."

Although the Coffees take a hands-on approach in running the new establishment, frequently shopping for food and planning the menus, each praises the culinary skills of their chef. From the Lakeland area of Pointe Coupee Parish, Boudreaux knows good food, the Coffees declare, and knows how to prepare the most savory of recipes.

"Bill is extremely talented," Al Coffee said. "His dishes are updates of old Creole recipes from Pointe Coupee and New Orleans that have been handed down through generations."

Some of Boudreaux's culinary creations include an appetizer of deep-fried eggplant topped with sauteed crawfish tails and Bearnaise sauce, a rabbit and andouille gumbo, she-crab bisque and fillet of fresh speckled trout topped with an herb cream sauce and sauteed crawfish.

Sidney Coffee said, "I don't enjoy cooking as much as Al, but I enjoy eating. I'm particular about what I like. You'd better be in this part of the country because everyone else is particular too."

The Coffees' latest endeavor is ironic, they say, since one of their objectives in moving to New Roads was to escape the fast-paced careers each had pursued since graduating from LSU in the mid-1970s.

Al Coffee, a wide-receiver for the LSU Tigers in the early 1970s, was also on the LSU track team, taking an SEC sprint championship. Following graduation he worked in a variety of marketing positions, including radio sales and sports newscasting, was employed with Stone & Weber for eight years during the construction of the River Bend Nuclear Plant in St. Francisville, operated a traffic information service for Baton Rouge radio stations and is currently sales manager for the Gulf states area of Gulf-Wandes, a manufacturer and distributor of plastic valves and piping. He's a native of Baton Rouge.

Sidney Pryor Coffee was born in Beaumont, Texas, and is an LSU journalism graduate. Her fast-paced media career began as a copy writer with the promotion department of Capital City Press. Changing to the field of television, she worked for seven years in various capacities as producer of several news shows for WBRZ-TV. She held other media positions and was appointed press secretary to Buddy Roemer following his election as governor and later commuted between Baton Rouge, Memphis and Washington doing public relations for the Lower Mississippi Delta Development Commission, at that time headed by then-Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton.

She became involved with "cultural tourism" while with the Delta Development Commission. It is a concept of organizing tours of back-country areas with the idea of involving the tour members with the local citizens. She now operates a cultural tour company called "Louisiana Backroads," and it was through this that she discovered the small-town pleasures of New Roads.

Meanwhile, Al Coffee had been nurturing the idea of operating a bed and breakfast establishment. When he learned that Mary Ann and Miller Armstrong would be willing to relinquish their duties as innkeepers of their two properties- the turn-of-the-century Hebert House and its next-door neighbor, an 1830 Creole cottage known as the Samson-Claiborne House- the Coffees decided to take over.

"All of a sudden we struck a deal," he said. "We put the real B&B touch on the operation by moving into the Hebert House. The entire Samson-Claiborne House is a B&B."

Despite the dramatic turn of events in their lives during the past several years, the Coffees say they relish their new lifestyle in the town on False River. Their two sons pitch in with some of the duties, although 19-year-old Tyler's studies as a pre-med student at LSU keep him in Baton Rouge much of the time. The younger son, Matt, is a quarterback for Catholic High Pointe Coupee in New Roads and is active on the high-school rodeo circuit.

About the bustling bed-and-breakfast business and the new Coffee House Restaurant, Sidney Coffee comments, "So far everything has worked out well, but my whole world is down to about four blocks in New Roads these days."
